President's Ramblings

April 2021

Greetings earthlings,

After a couple of COVID delays and cancellations, we recently managed to actually have our run out to Swan Bay to visit Eon & Maree's property and collection of goodies! And what a great day it was! Eon led the convoy from the Peninsula Hotel via Portarlington, Indented Head & St Leonards out to Swan Bay. We were met there by the fantastic EsCARpades team (run by Graeme McMahon and Ray Murray), with yummy hamburgers and snags! A very relaxing afternoon ensued with plenty of chatting and perusing the collection of cars, aircraft, boats, etc. I've had comments from individuals stating that it was one of the best club runs we've had in ages! Huge thanks to Maree & Eon McDonald for their fantastic hospitality and also to the EsCARpades for the delicious tucker!!

Our March meeting was combined with a lunch run to the Beeac Pub, the following day after the Colac Car show. We had a good turn out to each event, with some members staying in Colac overnight. We held the meeting in the park across the road from the pub, amongst our cars. It was quite pleasant, other than a bit of sunburn. The waffle got cut short, as it was time to head over to order lunch. While the food was cooking, we had a brief tour of the owner's collection of cars, albeit only 1 shed as the others were inaccessible. The meals were huge and well as good as I remember from last time - probably something like 5 years ago? Most people split up and went their own ways home. My trip wasn't without it's dramas as the LH rear wheel decided it wanted to part ways with the car. Luckily I stopped in Inverleigh for a drink and noticed that 2 nuts were missing and a 3rd was almost off! Thanks Shane McInerney, for coming to the rescue with a wheel brace and jack. Really, who goes off on a journey in a newly put together car without carrying these basic items?? And then there's the mechanic who didn't torque them up adequately.....

We will be recommencing our Tuesday night meetings this month, with a trial run at the Fyansford Hotel on the 13th of April at 7.30pm. We have been given their front function room for our meetings and meals will be available beforehand, for anyone interested. We have booked a table in the Bistro for club members wanting a meal, in the same manner as we did at the previous venue.

See you all around the traps!

Tony Porter
