President's Ramblings

January 2020

Greetings,

Happy New Year to all!!! I hope everyone had a great & safe Christmas and managed to get through the New Year unscathed!

We've started out 2020 with the Drysdale Classic Car & Bike show, straight off the bat. We had a dozen cars at the meeting point, braving the dampness. Clearly the ones with sugar based paint stayed at home. We set up at Drysdale and we had four late comers join us shortly afterwards. The dampness ceased around 10 and the day was pretty good from there in, though numbers were down significantly. Eon & Maree McDonald attended their first run with their Nugget Gold XY GT and actually managed to pick up a trophy! Not sure what, as I missed the presentations...

A busy few months coming up, with a bunch of new things added to our calendar (check it out for details!) There'll be plenty more, but this is a good start:

Jan

19th Northern Car & Bike Show, Pascoe Vale

Feb

2nd Cars & Coffee – Autobarn Waurin Ponds. New initiative between us and Autobarn, plus other clubs ongoing

9th Torquay Motor Show

9th Hanging Rock

16th Daylesford Motorfest

16th Geelong All Ford day

29th Colac Show N Shine

Mar

15th Geelong Motor Show

20th Ford Geelong Show N Shine (with the exception of course if Armageddon turns up...)

29th Cars & Coffee – Kardinia Cafe

Apr

5th Winery Cruise

19th Swan Bay Family BBQ

Jul

19th American Hotel, Creswick, Pub run

Plus we'll have a few guest speakers and charity cheque presentations over the next couple of meetings.....

See you all next month,

Tony Porter
