President's Ramblings

February 2019

Hi all,

At the January meeting, we presented a cheque for $2,500 to the State Manager of Camp Quality. This month, Bec from Peace of Mind Foundation will be attending our meeting, so we can present her with a cheque for $2,500 as well! That's $5,000 out of the funds raised from our annual Christmas raffle going to very worthy charities, that both have direct connection to members of our club. That's a great effort from our members and I'm very proud that we can do these good deeds!

It's now timely to start thinking about this year's raffle and to actively look for prize donations.

The All Ford Day is rapidly approaching (17th Feb), though there seems far less enthusiasm than previous years, for a number of valid reasons..... We will be meeting at the Bell Post shopping centre car park on Anakie Road, then heading off as a group down Anakie & Matthews Roads, arriving from the West of the event. Hopefully this will avoid some of the traffic mayhem that's expected coming up Plantation Road from Bacchus Marsh Road. The AFD organisers have confirmed that we have an area for 40 cars and two gazebos reserved, but I doubt we'll have anywhere near the number. At the time of writing, we have 18 members already registered and there is no map available as yet to plan a layout. It will be very interesting to see how this year's event goes, as it's the first one completely run by the Pace organisers and so many concerns over the choice of venue.

I've had a meeting with the Waurm Ponds Hotel Bistro management and raised a couple of issues. Some of the staff seemed to be confused about the venue vs bar closing time and I've been assured that we have the room until 10pm. The bar will need to close earlier than that due to Security staff collecting cash from the tills. I will table at the Feb meeting starting the meeting a half hour early, at 7.30, to give us a bit more breathing space for the 10pm close. We will put out an email poll soon to gauge the satisfaction of the venue with our members. If you have any other specific issues, please let me know!

See you all next month.

Tony Porter
