President's Ramblings

April 2019

Greetings all,

I was privileged enough to be in Sydney a couple of weeks ago, when the Falcon GT Club of NSW held their annual Club Concourse. It's an annual event that they hold, usually in the lead up to the GT Nationals on the off year. The judging is based on a people's choice format, in categories by model. It got me thinking that it would be something we could do as a club, with a bit of revision to the categories to better suit our diverse range of club cars. Something to think about for the future, maybe during non-winter months.....

Last weekend, the weather unfortunately washed out our plans for the Family Day at Swan Bay. At the last minute, an alternate venue was arranged, being the St Leonards Hotel. We had 20 people brave the wintry conditions and turn up to the meeting point. We went for a bit of a cruise around the Esplanade and finished off with a lovely meal at the pub. Followed by Daniel's Donuts at Portarlington on the way back, for a few.....

We will reschedule the Swan Bay event at a later date.

A few runs coming up this month:

- Hot Dogs & Hot Rods @ Ford Campbellfield on Wednesday 10th April,
- St Anne's Winery Car Show at Myrning on the 14th of April, (plus Myrning Sprints the same day),
- Falcon GT Nationals, Adelaide – 18th – 22nd April,
- Royal Children's Hospital Charity Car Meet, Harvey Norman Waurm Ponds, 19th April (Good Friday)

See calendar for details.

See you all next month.

Tony Porter
