President's Ramblings

June – July 2022

Greetings fellow Falcon GT enthusiasts,

The upcoming meeting (July 12th) is our 2022 Annual General Meeting!! Never before have we seen such a worn out, tired, depleted group of people, as the current committee is. With, of course, the exception of Paul Clark who is relatively new blood!!

Changing work commitments and health challenges are also going to play a big part in the ability of the current committee to be able to continue on for another term, particularly in attending meetings. As is the standard procedure, all committee positions will be made vacant on the night. The big difference will be that most of us won't be re-standing. Given that we have a current Financial Membership is 116, there is a plethora of eligible candidates!! I urge all members to rally around to put up a bunch of fresh candidates!!!

As most should already know, the 19th Falcon GT Nationals date has been released and its 18th – 21st May 2023 at Bathurst, NSW! If you're not on it already, "like" this facebook group! It has a load of info, FAQs and regular updates. If the link doesn't work, search "19th Falcon GT Nationals - Bathurst 2023"
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/570885704405788>

The amendments to judging categories are also explained in some detail.

It is anticipated that entries will open mid-July. As I've mentioned a few times already, accommodation cannot be booked without a confirmed Nationals Entry Number and it will go VERY QUICKLY! If you have a preferred accommodation option, keep your eyes out for the opening of entries and get on it!!

Darryl and I will be endeavouring to stay at the Rydges, as we'll be required at the venue most of the time. Other than that the choice is yours. The 3 reserved motels are:

- Rydges Mount Panorama Bathurst. <https://www.rydges.com/accommodation/regional-nsw/mount-panorama-bathurst>
- Panorama Motel Bathurst. <https://panoramabathurst.com.au/>
- Bathurst Motor Inn. <https://www.bathurstmotorinn.com.au/>

We toured all of the above three over the Delegates weekend, they're all great places and have their own individual positive attributes.

The 2025 Falcon GT Nationals are planned to be held in Victoria. Moves are afoot to have a meeting of the Delegates from the 3 Victorian clubs to discuss thoughts and options. Any input from members would be welcomed!

Until next month,

Tony Porter
