President's Ramblings

June 2019

Hi All,

Winter is well and truly upon us and things have been pretty quiet on the club outings front as a result! Two weeks ago the 'Melbourne's West meets Geelong' meet at BP lovely Banks was cancelled due to heavy precipitation.

The Club Committee recently braved the cold and wet, holding a meeting at sponsor 'The Yardz' pub. The tucker and hospitality was second to none, as usual! Plus it was cozy warm too. As a result of the meeting we've come up with some more things for the calendar, amongst other things.

Here's a quick summary, plus some already organised ones:

- Sunday Lunch at The Yardz Pub - Sunday 16th June, meet there @ 11.30am
- 'Around the Bay in a Day' – Sunday 14th July, meet BP Lovely Banks @ 8.30am
- Mystery shed tour – Sunday 27th July, meet Texas in Mercer St for a coffee start @ 10am
- Mystery Pub run – Sunday 18th August, meet opposite Batesford Roadhouse @10am
- RACV Aussie Classic Car Show – Sunday 25th August
- Peace of Mind Men's Retreat – Saturday 7th September
- Euroa Show n Shine – Sunday 6th October

After a somewhat uncomfortable moment for most at the May meeting, with a bit of venting from a couple of very passionate members, it got me to thinking..... Some of our club's biggest strengths are in it's diversity and laid back social nature. While we all share a common passion, we need to remind ourselves that everyone is not into the exact same activities as each other. Also, there are a lot of factors that contribute to how many people turn up to an individual event; weather, family, car health, personal health, wallet health, enthusiasm, etc. The point that was being made at the May meeting, was the big variation between interest shown in an event at meetings and the actual attendance. Individuals put a lot of effort organising things and understandably, it becomes very disappointing (and sometimes embarrassing) when it's poorly attended. While there's no easy solution, as all sorts of things can change at short notice, it would be worth giving things a bit of extra thought before commitment.

We did discuss this topic at our Committee meeting and decided that maybe we trial putting a little less focus on the quantity of attendance and the keen members will turn up to the runs that interest them. Where we have a run that requires a booking, we can get an indication of numbers beforehand and call ahead to the venue after we do a headcount at the meeting point. Obviously there still needs to be strict commitment around the more formal events where bookings and entrance fees are required.

Additionally, members are encouraged to bring their daily drivers to cruises/pub runs where it's not practical or possible to drive the club car (for whatever reason), to keep a focus on the social aspect of the club.

This is not meant as a rant, but more just me thinking out loud..... I welcome any feedback/input.

See you all next month!

Tony Porter
